

“Friendship”

Friendship is a feeling that one feels fortunate to have.
A close friend is the one with whom we can live each moment.
The one with who we can feel each moment.
A relationship in which if one is upset, the other is upset.
If one cries, the tears come out of the other's eyes.
If one makes a mistake, the other one comes to cover his mistake.
A friendship is one in which have the every one of the feelings of a sister,
A mother even of a every single relationship.
And the best friend is who understands you who feels you
who understands everything you say without saying anything.
And I want to say one thing to my friends:
I love you so much and thank you to help me in every moment.
Pen is red
Ink is blue
O my friend
I love you
